Option One

Artist Bronte Wilkes can guide a fun, step-by-step painting class tailored to your little ones capabilities. We will explore different ways to paint a background and use stencils or sketching materials to add different layers.

Option Two

Keep it straight forward with pre-drawn canvases ready to fill in with paint. Artist Bronte Wilkes will be on hand to guide and assist children through their creative journey.

Option Three

Keep it open-ended with blank canvases, pots or ornaments for a free-paint session. We will leave you for 2 hours with access to all materials and paints for maximum creativity.
